BYB Extreme Bare Knuckle Fighting Series Offers Fight Training to Locked Out Rays, Marlins

TAMPA, FL – In light of the ongoing Major League Baseball contract kerfuffle, BYB Extreme Bare Knuckle Fighting Series founder Dada 5000 is offering locked out Rays and Marlins a chance to train with the South Florida-based combat sport federation and the opportunity to earn a BYB contract.

Said Dada, “Born and bred in the backyards of South Florida, BYB is all about creating opportunity and a physical and emotional outlet for athletes of all stripes. And while Rob Manfred doesn’t appreciate the talents and commitment of some of the most talented athletes in the world, BYB is happy to welcome them with open arms.”

“Bare knuckle boxing, like baseball, is all about reaction, agility, and hand-eye coordination. If any ballplayers are looking to keep their skills sharp, or perhaps learn a technique or two for when the next beanball comes their way, we invite them to trade the diamond for the Trigon. I’ll personally take them under my wing.”

BYB Extreme Bare Knuckle Fighting Series and the patented mighty Trigon will return to Florida on March 12 at the Florida State Fairgrounds for BYB 9. The card will be highlighted by a much-anticipated showdown between Josh Burns and Travis Wiuff for the Inaugural Police Gazette World Diamond Super Heavyweight Belt, as well as a battle for the BYB 165 strap between undefeated bare knuckle fighters JD Burns and Jose Fernandez.

BYB Extreme Fighting Series was established to bring fight fans what they want most, ACTION! BYB Extreme Bare-Knuckle Brawls is designed to leave decisions to the combatants in the cage, not the judges. Close combat in BYB's 3-sided Triangle cage, affectionately known as “The Trigon”, just about guarantees that. No other ring or cage in the world has angles of less than 90 degrees. With 60-degree angles, "The Trigon" guarantees 180-degrees of mayhem. BYB Extreme combatants will work to take the action to the center of the cage versus risking getting caught up in one of 'The Trigon's' tight corners. BYB Extreme Fighting Series is taking Bareknuckle Brawling into the 21st and even the 22nd centuries, not back to the 1800's. Let's Brawl.
